Workingmen's Pants!

A poor, cheap pair of Trousers is a bad investment for a workingman. The man who buys his Pants here will never get a poor pair. For workingmen we select good, strong, serviceable materials, in neat patterns, and then the best manufacturer in the country makes them with all possible care. They are reinforced at every point where there is any strain. Seams well sewed, buttons put on to stay, and not an item omitted that would add to their strength or durability. Then, when selling them, we say "Money back if anything goes wrong."
